

Process, Optimisation, Debottlenecking & Capacity Upgrade

Wasco offers a range of solutions designed to eliminate or reduce bottlenecks to maximise productivity in oil and gas facilities. The first step in this process is by examining the overall operating conditions of the facility and understanding its limitations.

Some of the most common bottlenecks are undercapacity, compressor flow, control valves, coolers/chillers and rotating equipment issues.