

Power Generation and Waste Heat Recover (WHR) Modules

Wasco specialises in modularising turbine and engine-based power generation modules for FPSO. We work closely with the OEMs to ensure modularisation is done to the highest standard required for the reliable operation of this critical equipment in FPSO.

Wasco's expertise in the engineering of rotating equipment packages complements the modularisation of these packages where tolerances and proper supports are critical for high reliability and reduced vibration levels.